Dear Sir

I was duly favoured with your note, but did not reply till after ascertaining if our friend Frank Wheler was back in London - I have never got back the medallion - and have enclosed him your letter to day, asking if he will be kind enough to send you a Cast - I suppose there can be little doubt but that it is false, although although very fine work - I got it a number of years ago at Lord Murray sale here, he had inherited it from his relation General Ramsay who had the fine Collection of Roman Coins -

The sale was a great success on the whole, the Ringstone the only big loss. was that the result of our democratic age? The sum total was about fourteen hundred (£1400) Pounds more than I counted upon, and a few hundred pounds more than the Coins cost me -

When I began collecting quantity rather than quality was gone in for. Now it is quality & art, fortunately I took the Run to the latter way - The same thing holds good in every thing, Books, Pictures, Bronzes, Marbles etc. Buy the best if you wish to get your money back in fact I gained most on some of the dearest Coins, for the buying of which some of my brother collector laughed at the Prices I paid - for your Annual you are marked on other side -

The parting with the Coins as you may guess caused me great regret, I have known this all the Greek Copper, the my Roman & few Scottish and brie a brae the rest have now for to the Thus I come and can Jenny content myself with what is left -

Yours truly
Robert Carfrae
